Show us the creative power of hope.
Teach us the peace that comes from

The Gift

If I could give away each day whatever I don't need,
Could let it go with grace and love,
A quiet, unsung deed.

If I could offer up at night an honest heartfelt prayer,
And share with God what was my fault,
My peaceful soul laid bare.

If I could trust the Lord, My God, to meet each need in me,
Discard the traps and snares of life,
Live fully and live free.

If I could take but never hold, receive and pass it on,
Share each precious, God sent gift,
Not chase it when it's gone.

Then I could show a quiet way to meet my Lord's demands,
Give back to Him my only gift,
Abundant, empty hands.
